

Notes for authors

Psychologica Belgica publishes scientific contributions to all domains of psychology. Manuscripts should be submitted in Oxford English. Please send electronic submissions in pdf to psychologicabelgica@academiapress.be. Manuscripts should be prepared according to the guidelines of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA) (5th ed.). Authors are also invited to consult a recent issue of the journal. Manuscripts can only be submitted with the explicit understanding that they are not simultaneously being considered by any other publication outlet. Printing is free of charge but corrections other than printer's errors will be charged to the authors. Authors receive 25 reprints per article free of charge.

Please pay special attention to the following issues:

- Use double spacing throughout.
- On the title page indicate the corresponding author and include address, telephone number, and e-mail address of the corresponding author. Also give the affiliation of all other authors. Give a running head.
- Include an abstract of 100-150 words.
- Figures must be ready for reproduction; avoid heavy lines and black surfaces.
- Figures and Tables must be reserved for important data directly related to the content.
- Double-check the reference list and citations; do not use abbreviations when referencing periodicals.
- Final versions of accepted manuscripts should be e-mailed, preferably in Word format, to psychologicabelgica@academiapress.be. If the manuscript is prepared with other software packages, please contact Academia Press at psychologicabelgica@academiapress.be.
